

I am totally against the petition by the CBA to allow for relaxed telemarketing rules. I enjoy my evenings and do not believe that anyone has a right to "pester" me on my time using my telecommunications equipment. They may have a right to free speech but I also have a right not to be forced to listen!